COMPANY PROFILE

Founded in 2010 Eventi-X Group is a highly specialized Italian company, which is able to offer a complete service to all businesses, agencies, production and publishing companies who need to develop audiovisual communication programmes.

Eventi-X Group operates in the field of TV production and audiovisual services. The company works in close collaboration with international partners to ensure audiovisual services of the highest standards are provided for their clients.

Attention to detail, enthusiasm, versatility and an extremely careful selection process for team members and communication experts allows us not only to be designers, but also great creators of any integrated communication project.

*“What is now proved was once only imagined”
(William Blake)*

Don't limit your imagination because you don't know how to transform it. We are here.

OUR SERVICES

We are a young, professional, creative and dynamic reality, fascinated by the wonderful world of communication.

The core business of the Group is to conduct corporate events such as conferences and conventions. With a highly qualified team working alongside some of the most prestigious manufacturers in the industry, such as D&B, Sennheiser, Barco, Christie, Yamaha and Clay Paky, we promise to deliver, from conception to final production, the finest possible solution to any corporate function.

CONFERENCES & CORPORATE EVENTS

Eventi-X Group specializes in carrying out technical and audio-visual services for conferences and corporate events.

Every event represents the added value of human resources and technology. Thanks to the union between modern equipment and the experts working on each event we have been successful in achieving our main objective - customer satisfaction.

Conferences and corporate events represent a very important means of communication with both national and international customers. That's why it is very important to consider every single detail. According to the customers' requirements, we develop original ideas, create lasting memories, allow multiple solutions, such as audio, video shooting and projection services, lighting set-up and simultaneous translation. We aim to meet all the requirements of every customer.

CLIENTS

Someone once said “a business is only as strong as its closest customer relationships.” We know that this statement is true.

Client satisfaction happens in the small personal interactions that allow us to show each other who we are and what we believe in.

We provide the highest professional management of your audiovisual needs - both equipment and staff, to ensure the optimal organization of your event. This is our mission.

OUR PROMISE

We always listen to our customers. Their thoughts, their aspirations, their dreams. These things we take and turn them into reality, through inspirational ideas, imaginative planning and total commitment.

We never compromise on quality. Using only the finest equipment on the market our excellent and dedicated staff constantly strive for perfection.

We promise to work as hard as we can to exceed our customer's expectations.
